

Broadband over powerline sounds like it will destroy the HF radio spectrum. I am strongly opposed to this. I also consider it a risk to national security. It is also likely illegal and will be met with a barrage of lawsuits against the government. It would ruin the great tradition of Amateur Radio, which is protected by the FCC and international agreement.